

GOVERNOR ORDERS THAT COLORED GIRL SHALL BE REINSTATED

Massachusetts Executive and His Council Declare State Hospital Must Replace Stenographer Discharged on Account of Color. Equal Rights League Champions Cause.

Boston, Mass., April 26.—When Miss Bosfield was first discharged from the state hospital some time ago, a storm of protest went up from quite a number of people, not only in Massachusetts, but in many parts of the country. But like many other cases most of the protests were forgotten about the case and left it to die, and the young woman, out of her position that she had competed for, and won. But the Equal Rights League of Boston, led by Mr. Monroe Trotter, editor of the Boston Guardian, kept up the fight until the case finally reached the governor of the state, who heard the case with his council and he decided that Miss Bosfield's discharge was a case of pure discrimination on account of color. Therefore the governor issued the following order:

"Ordered: That it is the opinion of the Governor and council that Miss Jane R. Bosfield should be reinstated forthwith in the position from which she was discharged at the Medford State Hospital; that notice of this order be transmitted to the trustees of said hospital and any other office having jurisdiction, in order that the requisite steps may be forthwith taken to reinstate Miss Bosfield."

It is regarded as certain at the State House that if the trustees of the Medford State Hospital do not bring about the immediate reinstatement of Miss Bosfield, that the Governor and council will remove all of the trustees if necessary to accomplish this.

Hearing the Case
At the hearing, a large number of persons appeared to urge action on the part of the Governor and council to secure the reinstatement of Miss Bosfield. Miss Bosfield's petition stated that she had been discriminated against in that she was not housed with the other employees, but was first placed in the gardener's house and later in the morgue and chapel building and had to take her meals from a tray instead of eating with other employees, she said.

French says it was insubordination.
Dr. Edward French, superintendent of the Medford State Hospital, stated Miss Bosfield was not discharged on account of her color, but because of insubordination. She insisted, however, on going into the employees' dining room after being directed not to do so. Attorney C. W. M. Williams asked Dr. French for what he termed discrimination and also for the names of hospital trustees and the Insanity Board.

The Petition
"We, the undersigned citizens of Massachusetts, in view of the color discrimination and color segregation in the case of Miss Jane R. Bosfield, respectfully pray that the ultimate and supreme executive authority and power of the commonwealth be exerted in order that the victim be granted due restoration of rights, and especially that such denial of equal rights be cause of color be abolished and forbidden in Massachusetts. We request that an audience be granted the league executive committee and its members in New Bedford, Mass., Thursday, May 4, 1916, at 8:30 p.m., to be held in the League to help the cause of justice editorially and which published three strong editorials on the case."

Members Who Signed Petition
Among the leaders in the delegation were: W. Monroe Trotter, J. W. Schuch, E. T. Morris, Wm. D. Brigham, the Rev. T. A. Auten, E. P. Benjamin, the Rev. B. W. Swain, J. M. Burrell, C. J. Wright, Sherwin L. Cook, C. L. Barker, C. G. Morgan, J. A. Crawford, Rev. M. A. W. Shaw, Rev. M. W. Thornton, Allen W. Whaley, Boston Traveler.

ing published on its front page the following report with a cut of Miss Bosfield and with this heading in large type: "Miss Bosfield to get her job." Governor and Council vote she should be reinstated even if trustees are "fixed."

Gov. Russell McCall and the members of the Executive Council unanimously voted yesterday that Jane R. Bosfield, the young colored woman stenographer who was dismissed from the Medford State Hospital recently, should be reinstated at once.

The action of the Governor and council followed a lengthy hearing which they gave on the case.

MOVIES

"I regret so much I did not get to see 'Puro' College moving pictures at the Centennial Christian Church last Friday evening, hope it is not the last showing," said "Miss Abene," yesterday. We really thought it to be her last showing at Bloomingville, Ill., has just informed us that we are booked to show there Tuesday evening, May 2, at the Wayman A. M. E. Church. The Pastor's Club of the Lane Tabernacle Church, this city has also requested a showing Monday evening, May 8.

At first prices were destined to be high for the new moving pictures of the city agents, visitors, and college employees, but having accepted an invitation from St. Paul's Chapel, one of the leading churches of this city, soon after their completion, to show them for the benefit of the church, we have continued accepting these invitations from the many churches of this city, and other cities as well, until now it will only be a short while, when the entire country will have seen "Puro" College Movies.

Since they are now being shown for the benefit of the churches, the proprietors of the college have taken pleasure in collecting a number of many interesting scenes of other business enterprises of our race, during their extensive travels, which have been added to the reels, thus making them all the more interesting and enjoyable.

Will you let another opportunity slip you, and miss seeing moving pictures which are the only and best filmed of a college of this kind in the country? No, for you will be one of the first to make your appearance at the Lane Tabernacle Church, 3266 Fairfax Ave., Monday evening at 8:30 prompt. The Pastor's Club of this church shall keep watch for you. So come, we, too, will appreciate your presence. Admission, 10 cents.

Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Ward, of Denver, Colo., enroute to the general conference of the A. M. E. Church, to be held in Philadelphia, Pa., Thursday in this city, the guests of Puro College. On their return, they will be in the city for a few days, at which time they will be pleased to meet their many friends.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASS'N FUNDS GROWS

Nearly $5,000 Collected. Team President, Dr. F. A. Curtis, Captain, Shell Leads. Team Secretary, C. H. Turner, Captain, Fellows Closely.

Two hundred and eighty-six persons have paid in full their pledges to the Young Men's Christian Association Building Fund. Nine hundred and eighty payments have been made on pledges, which bring the total amount paid up to $7,754.76.

In the standing of teams, Team No. 14 still leads. Team No. 8, which temporarily forged ahead has been displaced by Teams 17 and 9. At the meeting of Team No. 8 at the residence of P. A. Carter of that team, the team members present pledged themselves to meet once a month and to see each subscriber of their team once a month until Team No. 8 should be in the lead.

No less enthusiastic was the meeting of the campaign committee on Sunday morning just before the church service when the members that were present agreed to pay in their pledges in full at the earliest possible moment so that the campaign for the purchasing of the lot would not be lacking. As soon as enough money has been collected for the lot, the purchase will be made. Interest centers in the lot question these days and it is agreed by all that the association should make the purchase at an early day.

Oxford College

W. L. Majors, president and founder of the Oxford College of Hair Culture, made the following statement to a representative of the Argus.

"I am pleased to say that our business has grown more rapidly in the past twenty months than any other similar concern; have never mentioned our rapid advancement until now, because I wanted our agents and customers to realize the results of our efforts. I am proud to the public that I have come to stay. In order to make this rapid progress in the hairdressing business, we realized that there were three important points: 1. System for handling my trade in all parts of the country. 2. To use the very best raw materials in manufacturing my preparations. 3. To obtain satisfactory results, then the battle would be won at the same time I did not forget the great competition which I had to face. We have agents from coast to coast and day by day bring exciting testimonials from every part of the country—not only have we met with success out of town, but in the city as well. We are now taking time from time to time to enroll local agents and customers. It is our constant increase of business which enables us to give more employment."

Mr. Majors stated that he is the first and only one of his race in this business to demonstrate his own inventions and preparations before some of the most influential citizens through the South and has gained a reputation in the East as well. Mr. Majors will make a very extensive tour in his car for the purpose of visiting his agents and receiving good credits for same. He will be given later.

Mr. Majors will hold big demonstrations for one week at Harris' drug store, Pendleton and North Market streets. It will be similar to one held at Chicago exposition last August, which proved to be a wonderful success and received good credits for same. Date will be given later.

A DRAMA WORTHY OF PRAISE

To much cannot be said of the splendid drama, "Lord Earlington's Broken Vow," presented by Mrs. Ruth Shelton, for White Rose Troop, No. 8, Pendleton and North Market streets, theatre each time to fine and enthusiastic audiences. Those who witnessed the beautiful and stirring drama, that appeals to every man, woman and child, and received good credits for same. It was written by Mrs. Ruth Shelton, a woman of our own race. She has given to the race a production of clean, decent comedy, interspersed with thrilling, pathetic scenes. She makes the poor, common class of the heroes of the drama. The moral comes in the fifth act, when Lady Earlington acknowledges that there is common blood in her veins given up Lord Earlington. Her idolized husband, with all his millions, for dear old Daddy Plank. In the final scene Lord Earlington realizes that there are true and noble among the poor as well as among the rich, breaks his vow "Never to associate with poor, common people," by taking his wife to his heart again.

SOCIETY BELLE MARRIES POPULAR POSTAL EMPLOYE

Miss Charlottea Porter Wilkinson Becomes the Bride of Thomas Alva Jefferson. Impressive Ceremony Solemnized at St. Paul Chapel Wednesday evening. Brilliant Reception at Home of Bride's Parents. Nuptials Preceded by Social Events.

The marriage of Miss Charlottea Porter Wilkinson, to Mr. Thomas Alva Jefferson, Wednesday evening, April 26, at St. Paul's Chapel, was a fashionable Eastertide event, simply but impressively solemnized. Just at the hour of six the groom attended, by Dr. Theodore Moore, of Chicago, entered to the sweet strains of "Hymn Comes the Bride," sent forth from the church organ by Prof. Elmer Kerton. The bride followed, in girlish ease, calm and smiling, leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Wm. H. Bunn, attended by her cousin, Miss Naomi Bunn, of Chicago, as maid of honor. Solemnly the procession led to the altar where Rev. W. Sampson, D.D., performed the simple, but impressive ceremony. The groomsmen, and ushers were Messrs. J. Edward Parks, Douglas Cardale and Dr. E. H. Gordon.

The bride was given to in a superlative of white satin with court train trimmed in Spanish lace embellished with pearls. Her veil of tulle was draped from shoulder, caught with French orange buttons. She carried a shower of Marshall Nell and sweet peas.

The maid of honor wore a gown of delicate tulle and sea green chiffon, with lace, trimmed in pink rosebuds, giving it a French touch. She wore a pearl necklace and also carried a shower of roses and sweet peas.

The reception was held from seven to ten at the residence of the bride, 4328 West Belle. In the receiving line were Dr. Moore, the Pandemina Girls assisted by Mrs. Dodge, of California, cousin of the bride. The home was beautifully and artistically decorated with flowers and "Aunt Sam's" potted plants.

Prof. Wm. Flowers' orchestra furnished the music and Miss Minnie Aushorn assisted the caterers at the punch bowl. The presents were many, expensive and useful. "Aunt Sam's" was a valuable pair of diamond earrings, the gift of the groom; a collection of silver and cut glass and innumerable gifts in green and gold.

Sex the Key to the Bible

The World's Three Greatest Books
By Sidney C. Tapp, Ph.D.

"The Truth about the Bible," about five hundred pages, $1.00. "Why Jesus Was a Man and Not a Woman," three hundred pages, $1.00. "The Truth about the Bible," over one hundred and seventy-five pages, $1.00. All three of these books treat of the sex of the Bible, and show that the Bible is not a book of spirit, and that sex is the dividing line between the physical and spiritual worlds. They show that disease, sickness and death are due to the sex, and that sex-lust was the original sin and cause of death. They arrest the attention of the medical, scientific, philosophical and theological worlds and people of all classes. In no other books of modern times, and will probably do more to shape the thoughts of the human race than any books ever written in the history of the world. They are daily going to the great thinkers of all parts of the civilized world.

"I would rather be the author of the Truth about the Bible," says Dr. Tapp, "than to be the President of the United States. The sex-lust pervasion of the Bible as therein contained, is so daring and his own conclusions are so unanswerable that the human intellect cannot understand the logic of the thing. For indeed, it is the world's greatest book. Mr. Tapp's books on sex are the only interpretation of the Bible will live until time shall be no more. Regarding sex and humanity, the Bible is the mean presented by the author in these books as the only true one."

—Prof. J. Smith Harris, A. M.

Dr. Tapp's works on sex and the Bible will do more to empty our hell, lessen our iniquities and broaden our hearts than any idea that has ever been given to the world. In our opinion of the great good, morally and spiritually, that will be to the human race. The sex has been produced a world since that has been to the world's library in the civilized world.

I am a strong advocate of the Tressa Method. When I began taking the Tressa Treatments my hair was very short, stubby and uneven. Madam Mays' Magic Hair Grower has improved it wonderfully and I heartily recommend "Tressa," the Magic Hair Oil, to all who desire a growth of thick, long hair in a short time. I am still taking the Tressa treatments, and am more than pleased to submit my picture to show actual results of the Tressa Method.

I can say gladly and truly that the Madam Mays' Hair Grower has really worked magically for me. One year ago my hair was not more than three inches long, but by using the Mays' Magic Hair Grower "Tressa" according to directions, my hair is now 14 inches long and thick in proportion, and growing constantly. CLEAN UP

The time of year is here when the shedding of the winter and the coming of spring is the very nature of things. Now is the best time to clean up the yards, plant the seeds and flowers and urge spring time on.

We miss the work that has been done heretofore by the Brotherhood of Union Memorial Church, who have made it a part of their Christian duty to help and encourage each tenant along Pine and Layton to clean up.

AN OBJECT LESSON

Organization and persistence were the means used by the people of Boston in having Miss Bosfield reinstated at the State Hospital, from which she had been discharged on account of her color.

The one fact stands out as an object lesson and that is, the people of Boston have a live organization that stands for the protection of the right of the colored people. Let us not forget the N. A. A. C. P. We have other battles to fight. We need it.

SHAW ON THE ROAD TO OBLIVION

Honorable Leslie M. Shaw, ex-governor, ex-secretary of the treasury, ex-financier and ex-aspirant for U. S. senator and the presidency, has joined the mighty host of Negro-baiters. He is an Anglomaniac and belongs to that concurred species of men who are bigots and believe that God has chosen them to rule and own the earth and the fullness thereof.

Mr. Leslie Shaw comes from Iowa, where Negroes are too few and feeble to in any way disturb the equanimity of his Anglomaniacism, but, having a care for his race as well as himself, he wants the party that gave the Negro the right to hold office to proclaim through its platform that, hereafter, the Negro shall never hold office in the United States. It must be "so nominated in the bond" that Mr. Shaw's race which he says has always ruled the world, always will rule the world.

A man obsessed with Negro-phobia like Mr. Shaw need be excused when he shows such striking ignorance of history as is apparent in his sayings. What does he know or care if the ancestors of his race were naked savages, living in caves and selling their wives and daughters for slaves in England, at the same time that the admixtures of the Coptic and the Negro were enjoying the highest civilization in Egypt.

The Caucasian Empire, of which the Anglo-Saxon has been the dominant force for several centuries, is the last, and not the first, great empire; and the manner in which its members are locking horns now on the bloody fields of Europe may cause the earth to open and suck them in and make the plains of Mesopotamia again the seat of the world's power and the greatest civilization on earth.

Poor Leslie Shaw has been knocked out in Iowa by Senator Cummings. He is lost in the shuffle, and now, like most of the "Hill Billies" and "Red Necks," he tries to get attention by proclaiming himself against the Negro. His sting is extracted and, if he dare present such a ridiculous proposition to the National Republican Convention, a detestation will descend upon him like hot coals of fire.

What were the ultimate results of the great Civil War but to give the Negro the right to vote and hold office and make it an inalienable law in our Constitution? Who did it? The party that Mr. Shaw now asks to undo it. The Republican party began its career in its protest against slavery, and its highest achievement is the Emancipation Proclamation of Abraham Lincoln. The party knew quite well that freedom meant education, that education meant citizenship, that citizenship meant suffrage, that suffrage meant holding office and participation in all affairs of the government. Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican president, proved this. He gave two Negroes the rank of major in the U. S. army and two more lieutenants. He commissioned Frederick Douglass a member of the staff of Major-General Thomas. The sore-headed and discredited Shaw of Iowa will find that the road he is taking, though a broad one, will nevertheless lead him direct to oblivion.

JUDGE DYER'S DECISION
IN SEGREGATION CASE

Reproduced by Special Request

The Argus is the only paper to publish the decision in its entirety. Read it carefully and hand it down to posterity as one of the most important edicts in the history of the United States.

The segregation ordinances, which were passed by a popular vote of the people of this city on Feb. 20, 1914, were virtually killed by a decision handed down by Judge D. P. Dyer in the United States court here last Monday. As was exclusively predicted in the last week's issue of the Argus, a sweeping victory was gained by the plaintiffs.

A large number of colored people, both men and women were present, and when the decision was rendered a sigh of relief was manifested.

The attorneys for the plaintiff made a strong appeal against the ordinance, led by Col. W. H. Blodgett, while Associate City Counselor Paul Griffin appeared for the city.

Judge Dyer's Decision

In the most eloquent language Judge Dyer handed down the following decision:

The Court: "I have listened with much interest to all that has been said here. The debate has taken a very wide range. Practically there is but one legal question before the Court for decision, and that question is the validity of the two ordinances in question. That being true, it is also true, as counsel has said, that the Court's feelings personally should have nothing to do with determining this one question. Judges are very much like other people. They all try to do right and they try to administer justice."

"Nine years ago on this bench I took an oath. One of its provisions was 'that you solemnly swear that you will administer justice to the rich and poor alike.' I have tried hard to live up to the obligation of that oath. I know I have made many mistakes and have fallen far short of what probably would be counted a learned judge, but I have tried to do justice between man and man."

"Allusion has been made by counsel here to the fact that I have lived in this state a long time. For more than seventy years I have resided within sixty miles of where I sit today. My father came to this state from old Virginia where I was born, and settled in Lincoln county in 1841. He was the owner of Negroes. I was raised with Negroes, but as God is my judge I have tried always all my life to be just to them, and God giving me help I will continue so to the end."

"I have heard all this talk about intermarriage and miscegenation and all of that fifty years ago. Arguments were then made for the purpose of scaring men out of their wits by an appeal to their prejudices. These arguments, if they may be called such, were made when the question of emancipation was up; it was the contention then that ultimately it would lead to intermarriage between the races. I believed it would not do anything of the kind then, and believe so now. Negroes do not ask for equality; whites do not ask for it; the Negroes only ask to have the same privileges as others have, the same rights under the same legal right. Many white, native born, or any foreign born naturalized citizens of the United States. I would not be doing my duty if I hesitated to deal out equal justice to every one alike."

Jas. N. McKelvey, building commissioner and republican committeeman from the 23rd ward, was more than pleased with Judge Dyer's decision on the segregation ordinances.

LANE TABERNACLE NOTES

Last Sunday was a great day at Lane Tabernacle. The pastor, Rev. Smith, preached two able sermons. The children's program as rendered in the afternoon at 3 o'clock was a rare treat. The superintendent and assistants deserve much praise for this most excellent program. Bishop C. E. Phillips of Nashville, Tenn., of Fourth Episcopal District C. M. E. Church, was present and added much to the services by his instructive and forceful talk. After singing "I am Going Home," he opened the door of the church and one soul came forward accepting Christ as her Savior and joined the church. The good Bishop is always a welcome visitor.

FIFTH BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Our Easter service at 8:30 o'clock on the "Raising of Lazarus from the Dead," gave the congregation a very vivid lesson on resurrection and life. A committee of ladies with Mrs. Lillie Brice as leader decorated the altar most beautifully for our Easter services. The collection for the day, from all departments, amounted to $55. If all present amount duplicated by some of the churches of Missouri, it will give Western College a big boost.

EASTER AT CHRISTIAN SPIRITUAL CHURCH

The special Easter service at the Christian Spiritual Church was most attended. The assembly room was most beautifully decorated with flowers and many kinds. Some of the best mediums of the city were present and assisted in test services. Pastor Weatherford stated that the church will please with the attendance and wishes to thank the public for their liberal donation toward their building fund.

MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH
No. 2

By Synister Noble
Sunday was a joyful day, being Easter and Children's day. The house of the Lord was filled with the sound of the Lord's praise and the children of the Lord were there to see and hear their little ones sing. The special singing of Sister Springer, from Pleasant Green Baptist Church, which Rev. Father Miller presided over, was highly enjoyed. Much credit is due the children for the excellent way in which the program was rendered. Sunday was also a day of prayer and a great success. The collection was $25.66. Rev. Lee, the speaker, delivered a most wonderful sermon. His subject was, "Conversion of Saul and the Death of Christ." Rev. Father Miller participated in the rally and the meeting closed with the partaking of the Lord's Supper. At the close of the day's service all departed feeling that they had been much benefited. Rev. A. Dixon says, "come out, bring your children to Sunday-school."

CAUTION AT LAST

O, look, caught at last. A well known gentlemen, who is liked by all who know him, was in New York last August on business and happened to see the Shriners turn out. As they passed his hotel he noticed those grand warriors in line, Geo. W. McKelvin, Rev. H. Baker, 3567 Lafayette Ave., J. B. Henderson, S. Groves, J. Patterson, John W. Sykes, S. McNeil and many others. He says he could not help from giving that western war-scream, when he saw those St. Louisians in line and said the ladies in their auto looked grand. He said it was the grandest sight he ever saw among our people and he made up his mind that he was going like to join the Masons as soon as he came home. So he succeeded in getting District Deputy Grand Master J. L. Henderson to say that he would set up a new lodge. Now he is going around telling the boys to come and join him in the riding the goat. It will be in the near future, and there will be no time in the old town that night, see.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son, Milton Turner, who passed away one year ago, April 28, 1915. A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled, A place is vacant in our home, Which can never be filled. And while he lies in peaceful sleep, His memory we shall always keep. Sadly missed by mother, father, sisters, brothers and relatives.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Eliza Nickerson, who departed this life April 28, 1915. "Sleep on dear mother, our home is lost without you dear mother." Sadly missed by husband and children.

IN MEMORIAM

In precious remembrance of our dear sister, Stella Blackman, who departed this life one year ago, April 25, 1915. Day by day, we sadly miss you, Praying may think the wound is healed; But little they know the grief, -That's within our heart concealed. Sleep on dear sister, take thy rest, -We loved you dearly, but our Saviour loved you best. Sadly missed by sisters and brothers. (Signed) Mrs. E. R. Hollister.

BOOKER WASHINGTON

A good variety show of high class quality is on the boards at the Booker Washington theater this week.

Miss Gertrude Struffin opens with three popular sang numbers well rendered. She does well, is in good voice and garnishes her work with a little dancing.

Ruf and Cusock, a white team, offer a wealth of original dialogue. They are specialists in the art of high kicking. The lady is a good vocalist, and their dance numbers are artistic.

Frank Rodgers, a ventriloquist of high degree, has two manikins, a white and black, to carry out his tricks.

Next week the great Musical Millers Stock Company, of ten people, headed by Chas. Anderson, the yodler, will undoubtedly pack the house at every performance.

WEATHER DELAYS OPENING OF
NEW MOVIE AIRDOME

The management of the Movie Skydome, home of the Triangle Plays, regrets to announce that owing to unsettled weather conditions the grand opening of the Movie Skydome may be postponed. However the opening date will be advertised in advance. For the opening he has secured what is proclaimed the cream of stardom. A Triangle production in six parts entitled, "The Birth of Texas, or Martyrs of the Alamo," and a Keystone sensation in laugh making.

The Movie Skydome will be the home of Triangle Plays.

GIANTS PLAY IN INDIANAPOLIS
SUNDAY AND MONDAY

The Giants will play the A. B. C. club in Indianapolis Sunday and Monday. Mr. Barrett says the new Colored league will be perfected while in the Indiana capital. The entire team will leave St. Louis Saturday noon.

GIANTS BEAT WABADAS IN OPENING GAME LAST SUNDAY

Before a large gathering of fans, last Sunday at High School campus, Barrett's St. Louis Giants defeated the Wabada Grads 3 to 1 in a game that did not extend the colored stars.

Captain Wallace showed all his mount artists, Williams, Wade and Gatewood. Four hits were made off "String Beans" in 4 innings, none off Wade in 3 and 4 off Gatewood in the last 2.

Williams was suffering from a sore arm and Gatewood was not properly warmed up. Jimmie Lyons showed his old "pop" on the bases. Bennett has recovered his batting eye. "Speck" Webster and Cobb showed old time form behind the bag. The boys showed their popularity by drawing a crowd of fans of which at least 90 per cent were colored. Daily gave good satisfaction as umpire.
